Symposium

Tailored to the Patient, Driven by Data: Optimising Prophylaxis in VWD

Wednesday, 04 February 2026

17:30–18:30 GMT

Room: Liffey A

Convention Centre Dublin (CCD)

Agenda

Despite advances, patients with von Willebrand disease still face significant treatment gaps. In this interactive symposium, leading experts will share new insights from clinical studies and real-world practice, showing the impact of data-driven and PopPK-guided approaches on prophylaxis. Join us to explore the future of truly personalised VWD care.
