Same Goals, New Paths: Evaluating Today's Haemostatic Therapies

Tuesday, 14 July | 12:15-13:30 CEST | Room E03-04

Agenda

As new data continue to reshape haemostatic care, clinicians are faced with critical choices across multiple treatment pathways. Join this interactive symposium to examine the evidence behind current therapeutic options, compare strategies across key clinical scenarios, and gain insights into optimising patient outcomes through informed decision-making.
